

NICHOLAS SIMMONS: 1 – 7 September 2010

“Creative Watermedia”

Come and enjoy another creative adventure with unconventional and innovative Nicholas Simmons in beautiful Catalonia, in Girona province by the sea, for the first time in Spain.

Nick works large-scale and reveals how to turn the challenges unique to water media into textural advantages. He incorporates blooms, crawl-backs, bleeding and puddling, and demonstrates methods for integrating masked areas with wet-in-wet painting. He mixes watercolor with fluid acrylic, encourages the paper to buckle, and boldly wields a spray bottle to achieve textural effects. Nick likes to use also creative photography for obtaining unconventional reference shots.

Everybody will paint daily in the studio by the sea, and each person will receive individualized attention. Be prepared for Nick's unorthodox, and at times irreverent approach, and buckle up for a workshop that runs more on adrenalin than the rulebook! His friendly easy-going personality will help you enjoy a relaxed good-humoured companionship with the other fellow artists and make the most of your own creativity.
